

Northstate Public Radio
KCHO 91.7 FM, Chico / KFPR 88.9 FM, Redding
“A Moment of Generosity”
Spring Membership Drive
March 17-28, 2010

SPECIAL PROGRAMMING

Wed, March 17	10 AM	“Daryl Hannah: The Solution Revolution” From CSU Chico’s “On the Creek” lecture series
	8 PM	“Evening Jazz: The Evolution of Jazz Guitar”
Thu, March 18	10 AM	Call-in with NPR Ombudsman Alicia Shephard Listeners can ask about NPR news coverage and ethics
	8 PM	“Evening Jazz: The Rudy Van Gelder Legacy”
Fri, March 19	10 AM	“Native Living: The Sacred Dance Between a River and its People” - about the Klamath watershed and its impact on the health of the Karuk trib
	8 PM	“Evening Jazz: World Jazz
Mon, March 22	10 AM	“The Bioneers: The Seaweed Rebellion” Michael Stocker, Anne Rowley and David Helvarg talk about how to save the earth by saving the oceans
	8 PM	I-5 LIVE! and Evening Jazz Present: Alison Scull & Victor Martin (from Dunsmuir) in a live performance
Tue, March 23	10 AM	“Steve Wozniak: How I Invented the Personal Computer and Had Fun Doing It!” (Chico Performances and CSU College of Business presentation)
	8 PM	“Evening Jazz: The LeBeouf Bros.: Enfants de Jazz and The Swing Hour”
Wed, March 24	10 AM	“Nancy’s Bookshelf: Time-Honored Wisdom of the Tao” -- Nancy Wiegman speaks with nationally-known Chico author William Martin
	8 PM	“Evening Jazz: Miles and Coltrane”

Thu, March 25	10 AM	“In a North State Garden: Gardening with Kids” Jennifer Jewell speaks with guests from Turtle Bay’s McConnell Arboretum and Chico High School’s Horticulture Department
	8 PM	“Evening Jazz: Charlie Robinson, Johnathon Stoyanoff, & Derrick Benyon
Fri, March 26	10 AM	“Blue Dot Report: Living on Shaky Ground” Dave Schlom talks with USGS scientist Brad Aagaard about earthquakes and new technology
	8 PM	Live Jazz: Rudy Giscombe Trio
Sunday, March 28	1pm	“Sierra Nevada Spotlight: Asleep at the Wheel” Good-Olde-Fashioned Folk Music show celebrates Western Swing